That time I ended up in a mysterious new world and befriended a little cube creature that I met behind an abandon wadonalds while I was on my way to a truck convention

5 DEVILMAN CRYBABY

From the distinctive style of Masaaki Yuasa comes a great starting point for anyone who's interested in the devilman series, its almost on par with the original story but put on a more modern setting of today and with a few changes here and there, then you get a good retelling of the original manga

4 DEATH PARADE

Judgement, and rebirth are the things characters go through during the limited series. This was a great concept to what the afterlife is, just playing house games and be judged from remembering your past. There are still lingering questions about the afterlife world but sometimes answers are best left unanswered.

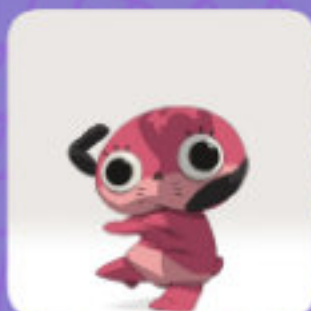

3 CHAINSAW MAN

My favorite manga series Ive anticipated to see get a anime adaptation has finally been made, one of the most grounded shonen protags that breaks the mold, with crazy devil designs, and insane story plot, this one series i would tell people to check out.

2 COWBOY BEBOP

THE best sci-fi space neo noir western anime from series director Shinichirō Watanabe, I always recommend this for anyone who are looking to start watching anime for its spectacular setting, characters, and story. I would also check out its film right after episode 22

1 PARANOIA AGENT

One of my traditions during spooky month is watching this anthology show from the late Satoshi Kon, each story tells its own story of victims of the lil slugger that has been terrorizing japan. The way each story is unique to one another you can go from the stress to creating a mascot to a black comedy of three online strangers, this is one anime i very much recommend watching as its number one spot

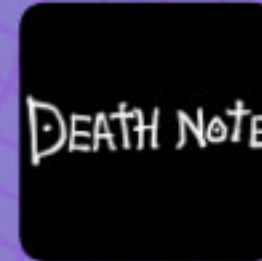

TOP 13 ANIME TO WATCH

9 ALL SAINTS ST.

A nice slice of life comedy of angels, demons, and monsters all living as roommates, with its cute art and simple art style you're not sure which character to fall for

13 DEATH NOTE

one if not the most recommended for people who are looking to start watching anime, with its thrilling plot elements and shocking twists its one I suggest to give a watch

8 SOUL EATER

A favorite of mine for its incredible character designs and unique backgrounds, the story might not been following the source the manga had but on its own its great

12 LAIN

my favorite sci-fi anime, with its head scratching story and its y2k computer aesthetic its one anime i recommend taking a look at

7 DOROHEDORO

c-cute...monsters UwU

11 KILL LA KILL

one of my favorite studio trigger anime

6 ONE PIECE

yes there may be 1,000+ episodes but every arc really has their great moments, Im currently on skypiea which is going swell, I do recommend reading the manga due to pacing

10 ODD TAXI

one unique anthology-esque anime that ties in really well all together revolving around one mystery, with its childish looking character designs this anime does goes into dark territories so don't be fool by it
